

WATERCOLOR POSTCARDS

A Virtual Workshop for ages 7-12 with artist Hollis Kitchin

Saturday, October 10
10:00—11:30 am

At this virtual workshop, get inspired by historic Alaska tourism photos from the Alaska State Archives and Historical Collections, learn watercolor painting techniques from local artist Hollis Kitchin, and create your own hand-painted postcard.

Participants need to be able to use Zoom and a webcam. Space is limited—request your spot by filling out the youth activity form. Materials will be provided and pick-up information will be sent when your registration is confirmed.

Hollis Kitchin has an art degree from the University of Alaska Southeast, has exhibited her work at galleries around town, and is a regular demonstrator at Alaska Robotics' Mini-Con.

This program is partially funded by the citizens of the City and Borough of Juneau through sales tax revenues and is sponsored by the Friends of the Alaska State Library, Archives, and Museum.
